Hi Tony

In the Authority's 11 December 2012 letter regarding LIME's proposed new service, LIME was given an opportunity to provide a redacted version of that letter by 18 December 2012 redacting the portions of the Authority's questions that it considers confidential.

I have not received any response to that redaction request.

If LIME has previously sent its response please resend to my email ID, or if LIME does not intend to file a redacted version please confirm that LIME does not consider any of the contents of the Authority's letter to be confidential.

Thanks

Tony

Please see the attached for interrogatories concerning the service filing.

I'm providing it in MS Word format to make it easier to cut and paste the questions into a response document.
