Information & Communications Technology Authority

NOTICE

Cable & Wireless has applied to the Grand Court for a stay pending appeal of the Authority's directives set out in its Decision of 22nd June 2004 which, inter alia, require Cable & Wireless to immediately cease offering its mobile postpaid plans to customers unless its rates comply with the new minimum increased monthly rates set out in the Decision.

The parties have agreed to an adjournment of that application and the Authority agrees that in that interim period it will not take any steps against Cable & Wireless with respect to the enforcement of the directives.
