SCHEDULE

(section 26)

Application of the Land Acquisition Law (1995 Revision)

1. (1) The following sections of the Land Acquisition Law (1995 Revision) shall have effect with the necessary modifications necessary to make it apply to a licensee's compulsory acquisition of land in the Islands-

- (a) section 2;
- (b) section 3;
- (c) section 4;
- (d) section 5;
- (e) section 6;
- (f) section 7; and
- (g) section 8.

(2) Compensation may be determined by agreement, by arbitration if mutually agreed between the parties or by a Judge in the Grand Court.

Assessment of compensation

2. (1) Subject to this paragraph, the value of land compulsorily acquired by a licensee is the amount which the land might be expected to realise if, in the condition in which it was at the date of acquisition, it had been sold in the open market by a willing seller to a willing buyer.

(2) Where the owner of the land is in occupation of the land at the date of acquisition, and as a result of the acquisition, it has been necessary for the owner to give up occupation of the land, the value of the land is the greater of-

- (a) the market value of the land determined as set out in subparagraph (1); and
- (b) the aggregate of -
  - (i) the market value of the land determined on the basis that the use to which the land was being put at the time of its acquisition was at its highest and best use; and
  - (ii) the reasonable and proper costs, expenses and losses arising out of, or incidental to, the owner's disturbance, including moving to other premises.

(3) Where the costs, expenses and losses referred to in subparagraph (2) cannot practically be estimated or determined, there may be allowed in lieu a percentage, not exceeding fifteen, of the market value as set out in subparagraph (1), together with the value to the owner of any element of special economic advantage to that owner arising out of, or incidental to, the owner's occupation of the land.

- (4) In determining the value of land, regard shall also be had to-
- (a) any damage caused by the severance of the land from other land in which the owner had an interest at the date of the acquisition; and
  - (b) any planning permission which has been granted in accordance with the Development and Planning Law (2008 Revision) and which is in force at the date of acquisition in respect of the land.

2008 Revision

(5) Where other land of the person interested adjoins the land acquired and the value of the other land is enhanced or depreciated by reason of the carrying out of, or the proposal to carry out, the public purpose for which the land is acquired, the enhancement or depreciation shall be set off against, or added to, as the case may require, the amount of the compensation otherwise payable to the person interested.

(6) Where the land is, and but for the compulsory acquisition would continue to be devoted to a purpose of such a nature that there is no general demand or market for land for that purpose, compensation may be assessed on the basis of the reasonable cost of equivalent reinstatement.

- (7) No allowance shall be made on account of-
- (a) the acquisition being compulsory or the degree of urgency or necessity which has led to the acquisition; or
  - (b) any disinclination of the person interested to part with the land acquired.

Assessment of leasehold interest

3. In determining the value of a leasehold interest where the whole of the leased premises has been compulsorily acquired regard shall be had to-

- (a) the length of the term of the leasehold interest and the portion of the term remaining unexpired at the time at the date of acquisition;
- (b) any right or reasonable prospect of renewal of the term that the owner of the leasehold interest had; and
- (c) any investment in the land by the owner of the leasehold interest and the nature of any business carried on by him on the land.

Severance

4. In assessing severance, regard shall be had to-
- (a) the amount of any reduction in the market value of the land caused by its severance from the acquired land; and
  - (b) the fact that any specified works, crossings, or access agreed to by or on behalf of the licensee shall be erected, provided and allowed; and any such agreement shall be reduced in writing and signed by the licensee and the person interested.

Mortgages

5. (1) The compensation payable to a mortgagee is an amount equal to the sum of-
- (a) the principal secured by the mortgage at the date of the acquisition; and
  - (b) the interest, costs or charges due to the mortgagee under the mortgage at the date of acquisition, but not exceeding the compensation payable to the mortgagor in respect of the land.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph, the compensation payable to the mortgagor shall be-
- (a) where there was only one mortgage over the land, the compensation that would have been payable to the mortgagor if there had been no mortgage over the land; or
  - (b) where there were more than one mortgage over the land, the compensation that would have been payable to the mortgagor if there had been no mortgage over the land less the amount, or the sum of the amounts, of principal, interest, costs and charges due at the date of acquisition to a mortgagee in respect of a mortgage having priority over the mortgage of which the compensation is to be determined.
- (3) In addition to the compensation payable in accordance with subparagraph (1) the mortgagee shall be paid-
- (a) interest upon the amount of principal included in that compensation at the lowest rate provided by the mortgage from the date of acquisition to the date of payment of compensation or, where payment is delayed through a default of the mortgagee, the date when payment would have been made but for the default; and
  - (b) where the principal is not repayable at the date when interest ceases to be payable under this paragraph, the cost to the mortgagee of reinvesting the principal and a reasonable allowance for loss of interest until the date on which the principal would have been repayable.

(4) The compensation payable to a mortgagee under subparagraph (1) shall be deducted from the compensation that would have been payable to the mortgagor if the mortgage did not exist, and interest under paragraph 23 is payable to the mortgagor on the reduced amount only.

(3) The compensation payable under this paragraph to a person interested is the amount by which the market value of the land on the relevant day is less than the amount that would have been the market value of the land on the relevant day if the depreciation in value caused by the existence of the thing constructed, by the commencement of the use or by the substantial intensification of the use, as the case may be, had not occurred.

(4) No person shall be paid compensation under this paragraph in respect of depreciation of land by an injurious factor unless the source of the injurious factor is on land vested in the licensee.
