Subject: Digicel's 3 Dec 2007 extension request for CD2005-1

To: CD2005-1 (Costing Manual) distribution list

On 3 December 2007, the Authority received a request from Digicel for an extension to the deadline in which to provide comments in the CD2005-1 Costing Manual proceeding. On 4 December 2007, the Authority received a letter from C&W urging the Authority to deny Digicel's request.

After due consideration, the Authority hereby extends the deadline for filing comments to 7 December 2007. Also, to allow sufficient time for other parties to reply to those and any other comments, the Authority extends the deadline for reply comments to 21 December 2007.

The Authority emphasizes that Digicel's comments, as well as those of any other party that wishes to file comments, must not respond or reply to the submission filed by C&W on 30 November 2007. Should Digicel or any other party wish to reply to C&W's submission of 30 November 2007, it may do so by filing reply comments by 21 December 2007.
