Importance: High

Gentlemen,

In the light of your recent updates on the progress of LNP testing, the Authority has decided that it would be in the best interests of the public to defer the LNP commencement date until start-of-business on Monday, 20 February 2012. Please use this additional time to complete thorough inter-operator testing and to ensure that your response to porting requests will be effective and efficient.

Regards,

Dave Archbold
