

Sonji Myles

Executive Director

Profile

Sonji is currently the Executive Director for ICT and holds the substantive post of Deputy Director for ICT and as such is responsible for directing and overseeing the regulation and development of the ICT sector in the Cayman Islands. Sonji also represents the ICT sector on the Office’s Board of Directors and formally served as Acting Secretary to the former Information and Communications Technology Authority (ICTA) and OfReg.

CONTACT

Phone :
+1 (345) xxxxxx

Email :
sonji.myles@ofreg.ky

Address :
3rd Floor Monaco Towers II,
11 Dr Roy’s Drive, George Town.

Having worked in the Office from inception and previous to that as a senior member of the ICTA , Sonji has a wealth of experience in ICT regulatory matters, ICT policy and strategic development, cybersecurity, licensing, compliance and enforcement.

To compliment his current role, Sonji has a wealth of varied professional experience including but not limited to; ICT policy, public administration, public policy and strategic development, IT networking and security, regulatory compliance, public sector investigations, data protection, emergency communications, legal analysis and drafting and law enforcement.

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Sonji has previously served as a public servant in several roles, including Assistant Manager of the 911 Emergency Communications Centre (now Public Safety Communications), where he assisted in the overall direction and management of the country's emergency services call handling and dispatch centre. He also served as a member of the Royal Cayman Islands Police Service in several roles, most notably as a narcotics Detective and last as a Detective Sergeant responsible for management of serious crime investigations. He has served as Complaints Investigator with the CI Complaints Commissioners Office (now Ombudsman), resolving public administration disputes and liaising with public sector entities to develop policies/action plans to ensure compliance with laws and policies towards exercising good public administration. Sonji also served as Analyst with the Information Commissioners Office, where he formed part of the initial ICO team responsible for establishing and developing that Office and was responsible for analysing and mediating freedom of information complaints as well as providing policy development support and training.

Sonji holds a Bachelors of Law Degree from the University of Liverpool, is a accredited Facilitative Mediator and holds numerous other specialised IT, ICT, management, public administration and law enforcement training certifications and accomplishments.

Sonji is the former Deputy Chairperson of the Labour Appeals Tribunal and a former legal representative to the CI Disability Policy Steering Committee.

